

Japanese Dried Salmon Products

#1 Soft and chewy dried salmon slices. Note the oxygen absorber that is placed in many dried fish packages in Northern Japan.

#2 Salmon rolls display case.

#3 Health Sea Sausage, made in Japan. Not strong sellers, according to manufacturer.

#4 Marinated pieces of salmon.

#5 Salmon roll wrapped in seaweed. Hokkaido, Japan.

#6 Several different brands and styles of dried salmon. Exclusively produced and sold in Northern Japan.

#7 Dried sides of salmon.

#8 Dried slices of Hokkaido chum.

#9 Dried salmon belly slices and strips sold at the Hokkaido Airport (Japan).

#10 Dried salmon bellies. Product has not been smoked.

#11 Dried strips of salmon prepared "Indian Style." Product very popular in Northern Japan and found at all airports and gift stores. This product is smoked and dried in a facility similar to Alaska Dried Foods (Kake, Alaska).